Witcher Jones May Capture the Provo Water Works.

NEWS NOTES FROM KAYSVILLE

How Thrifty Logan is Prospering, and in gilding in All the Modern Luxuries of Life.

The question of water works has been agitating the minds of Provo's people and its municipal council for some time. Not long since the council decided to bond the city for the purpose of raising money to put in a system of water works, but now comes Witcher Jones, of your city, and proposes to do that work for us. He made a proposition to the city council last week to put in a complete system of water works on condition that the city would transfer to him all their rights to the use of the waters of Climax and grant him the use of the streets for laying pipes, and so on, and at the end of twenty years the city to have the option of purchasing the system at the original cost with interest at 6 per cent.
The council met in special session Tuesday afternoon, and after thorough consideration acted favorably upon the proposition, with some modifications, and ordered the city attorney to draft a franchise. And so the water works is a go.

GENERAL NOTES.

The teachers go to the lake to-day for a frolic.

The street railway is going to the lake sure. The road will be there in a few days.

The district schools closed yesterday with appropriate exercises. It was the "pupils' day," and they acquitted themselves with credit.

The work done in the schools this year is better than ever before, and the people of Provo are to be congratulated on the tone and quality of their schools.

Deputy Gleason, of Salt Lake, is visiting the city, and has become convinced that Provo is the most attractive city in the territory for one to make his home.

After some delays the electric light plant has arrived. What with the street railway, the electric light, the water works and the building fever—that is rampant among us, Provo is riding on the high wave of prosperity.

The Provo opera house band are enthusiastic in their efforts to furnish a fine set of pieces for their engagement in Salt Lake.
The band is gaining a good reputation for discussing first class music.

The ball given by the Mustache club at Graves park was a social and financial success. The night was lovely, and the girls looked as sweet as the June buds, but the Mustache boys should have secured a larger and better orchestra.

The merchants are becoming indignant over the delay of their freight at Grand junction. The D. & R. G. company seems to have been a little premature in their change of gauge, and find it somewhat difficult to untangle the blockade the change has occasioned.

The citizens of Provo have consented to join with Salt Lake in their celebration on the Fourth of July. The prospects of a most extraordinary time being on at the capital, together with the fact that a number of Provo people expect to attend the carnival at Ogden, July 3, induced them to suspend and take in the gaieties of our neighbor cities.

The joint teachers convention of next month bids fair to be a big thing. The county superintendent of July county has just notified the county superintendent here that he will make this his official institute. So there will be four counties efficially present and teachers from many others.
Excursion rates over the Grand road from all points have been secured.

Provo, June 21.

Kaysville Kinks.

Grain on the range north of here is ripening fast.

Mr. Brassard, ex-train dispatcher at Evanston, has taken a position as the assistant of our Union Pacific station agent, Mr. Taylor.

The Kaysville Brick and Tile Manufacturing company shipped their first carload of brick last Saturday. They have made a contract to furnish from 30,000 to 50,000 pressed brick for the front of the new Constitution building in Salt Lake.

John Hill and John Bennett, who have been on a business trip in the north, returned home yesterday. They report crops in Cache valley as being fair, but rather backward for this time of the year. Corn and potatoes have been considerably damaged by frost.

Mrs. Mary A. Works, who has had charge of the primary department of the Kaysville academy during the past winter, left for her home in Mant last Sunday evening.
During her stay here she has been very self to be a very able and efficient teacher, and has won the respect and esteem of the children who have been under her charge.

Kaysville, June 22.

How Logan is Prospering.

Logan will soon be luxuriating in electric street cars, electric lights more generally distributed than now, and electric power variously applied. This will be gratifying, not only for the good these improvements will accomplish in themselves, but also as showing how we are advancing and how able we are to provide ourselves with the advantages of civilization whenever there is a sufficiency of population and business to demand them. And in this reckoning it should be remembered that Salt Lake had at least 40,000 and perhaps 50,000 people when it indulged in electric cars, and that Ogden, with perhaps 20,000, hasn't got them yet, nor even thought of such a thing.

Logan has now about 6,000 people, and while it is steadily growing, it is doubtless the smallest place in point of population on the Pacific coast to have all the modern improvements of a public nature. What we want worse than anything else is an efficient and comprehensive system of water works, and these will come along in due season. It should be taken into consideration that in a city like ours, with so limited a population, and these mainly engaged in agricultural pursuits, with our power to borrow money or otherwise incur financial obligations limited by Congress to 4 per cent of the assessed value of the property, and, therefore, a still smaller percentage of its actual value, as great strides in the directions indicated are not to be expected as in the case of cities of larger growth and greater pecuniary advantages; and to do what has already been accomplished and what is now laid out is certainly doing marvelously well—well enough, and the Journal, in common with the good people who support it, feel to rejoice with an exceeding great joy at these manifestations of real enterprise.

Pretty soon we shall have in "full swing" the greatest and one of the largest opera houses in the territory; and when we have a perfected broad gauge railway service, and some of the mines known to exist in the neighboring hills are yielding up of their hidden treasures for shipment or better still, the ores are being mined or smelted right here—what more shall we require in a material way to make of Logan the particularly bright and shining star in the grand constellation which has made Utah famed among the commonwealths of the Union?—Journal.

THREE LOCAL MATTERS.

Salt Lake's Views on the Speeding Train, the Warm Springs and Our Water Right.

To the Editor of THE HERALD:

It is to be hoped that two very unpleasant things are settled forever. The city council wisely voted not to sell the city's water rights, or rather the people's water rights. No man in his right senses would think of making such a sale. It is not to be supposed that the proposed purchasers made their offers pro bono publico, not by any manner of means. The offers were undoubtedly made for the purpose of making money. The water rights of the people of this city ought never to be sold, but to remain the perpetual heritage of the citizens. If such a sale were to be made, what would be the results? After a while the money would be spent, no fear of that, and the water would be gone, and the unfortunate city would have neither the money nor the water. A nice predicament. Not for Joseph, however. Not much.

Next, the fast horse runners and admirers induced Little King Thomas to ask for a speeding track—a race track, in plainer words—in Liberty park, for the use and decoration of the fast horse fraternity, who are only a moiety of the public. The park is not big enough for that, and the project is held back, let us hope, forever.
The park does not belong to a section or class of the citizens, but to all of them, and therefore, should be kept free for the use and pleasure of all the people of the city, as a breathing place, a resting place, a place for recreation for the people at large, for such purposes as the people generally could enjoy and take delight in. This design of the park would be frustrated for thousands if fast horses and their admirers were to be allowed to destroy its quiet restfulness, or its safety for women and children. If one or more speeding or race tracks are necessary, there are plenty of more suitable places to be had without spoiling the park for such a one-sided purpose.

As regards the Warm Springs, the city should not part with them, but they and the surrounding grounds should be retained indefinitely as an enduring natural legacy to the city. The bath house and grounds might be made attractive, so as to become a place of pleasant resort. That could be done. But to sell the property, never! It might perhaps be leased, for not too long a term, but no sale, for the reason that real estate remains, while money vanishes and generally nothing is left in its place.

NEURALGIA CAUSES MUCH IN SANITY.

The highest medical authorities of Europe and America have recently decided that a large percentage of cases of insanity is caused by the excruciating pains of neuralgia of the head and face. If any member of your family suffers this tormentor, induce them to try Ballard's Snow Liniment.
One application will afford immediate relief and you will soon be rid of a dangerous and tormenting disease. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the most penetrating liniment known. It positively cures rheumatism, lame back, contracted muscles, old sores, corns, bunions, etc. It penetrates and opens the pores, drawing all poisonous matter to the surface, restoring and promoting a natural circulation of the blood through the diseased parts.—11.

A Sure Cure for Piles.

Hitching Piles are known by moisture like perspiration, causing intense itching when warm. This form, as well as blind, bleeding, and protruding, yield at once to Dr.
Bosano's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, absorbs tumors, allays itching and effects a permanent cure. 50c. Druggists or mail: Sold by J. P. Melistrup, of Ephraim City, Utah, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has cured several cases of croup in my family.

The remedy has been used in this vicinity for over two and a half years and I know it will do all that it is recommended to do. As long as I have Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in stock I can sell no other kind." For sale by Z. C. M. I. drug department.
